

New Orleans Recreation Development Commission Installs State of the Art Playground Samuel Square Playground New Orleans, LA

When Little Tikes Commercial and No Fault Sport Group decided to host their annual sales convention in New Orleans, Hahn Enterprises and NORDC worked with them to install a state of the art playground to showcase their new 2015 play structure components and poured-in-place surfacing to their sales force.

Samuel Square Playground, which still had equipment from the early 1990's, got a complete makeover including a new KidBuilder unit with all new climbers, slides, bridges, shades, swings, and independent events. The hundreds of neighborhood children have been enjoying the fantastic equipment and are protected by the all-new safety surfacing provided by LTC and No Fault!
