

From Basketball Goals to Playgrounds to Bleachers - It Was a Busy Holiday Break!
All Over, Louisiana

While schools across the state have been closed for the holidays, Hahn Enterprises has been busy getting projects done all across LA! From installing basketball goals at the LSU PMAC facility (thank you to Malcolm and his crew!) to playground equipment and surfacing at Ecole Bilingue School in New Orleans, to new telescopic bleachers at Williams Blvd. Baptist Church in Kenner we have kept ourselves very busy to ensure the projects were completed and ready to go when students return in January.

Products in Action

Don't forget, the summer will be here before we know it! Please contact us with any projects you would like to have done during the summer break so we can get the ball rolling now!!
