

Andrew P. Sanchez Community Center is NORDC's Latest Rebuild Lower Ninth Ward, New Orleans, LA

The New Orleans Recreation Department Commission (NORDC) is excited to reopen the A.P. Sanchez Community Center this summer. Hahn Enterprises supplied not only the basketball goals, wall pads, volleyball equipment, and telescopic bleachers but also the floor covering to protect the new wood floor, ballet bars, and portable aluminum bleachers! This project took 1-1/2 years to complete, and Hahn helped keep the completion date of summer 2015 a possibility.

This 65,000 SF building replaces a 50,000 building that was demolished after Hurricane Katrina. The building includes a two-story entrance lobby, regulation size high school indoor basketball court with retractable bleachers and performance stage, commercial kitchen and concessions,
